

Counting My Blessings: A Voice of Seasons

Every one of us has a personal story of what the Lord has done for us. We all have a story to share about how we have become a believer or follower of Christ; and how God has shown himself to be working in our lives. It may not be an extraordinary one but, in my case, the awakening insights of tests and trials I've had in life have strengthened my faith in God. As I step into the crossroads, I come to know the great need and priority and that the challenge to take the road less traveled that leads to my calling - to serve God as a missionary priest.
